AKTABAN VON SIRUS

EARTHQUAKE DISASTER - TSUNAMI
POSSIBLE NUCLEAR REACTOR MELTDOWN IN JAPAN

"THE TRIANGLE OF VENUS"
COMPENSATION AND STABILITY TRIANGLE

PERSONAL CHANNELING OF 12 MARCH 2011

Call the group together. Activate the "light triangle of Venus". Very soon there will be other earthquakes along the major energy shifts that are taking place right now.

Humanity should be prepared that the old structure now goes down or drifts apart. Japan is so to speak an indicator for the collapsing, material, computer-driven world.

It is recommended that men kind remembers back to old things and that he learns again to blend in with nature, rather than to exploit her.

This earthquake in Japan will cause a chain reaction, that will radiate to the great industrial centers of this planet.

AKTABAN VON SIRIUS is present. We greet you.

And we thank you that you're already available at a higher level, to provide the appropriate light-geometric fields.

The "light triangle of Venus" has until now not been recognized in its true significance. Therefore we want to describe in a short version the function of the light triangle of Venus:

The "light triangle of Venus" will be installed between the Isola Madre in Italy, the Hagia Sophia in Istanbul and the city of Jerusalem, in order to provide a buffer area on this side of the global hemisphere, for the now developing and escalating energy on the other side of the hemisphere.

The "light triangle of Venus" is a great stabilizing surface and it is high time to install this triangle completely.

On your journey to Jerusalem you will receive a very high level of support and protection. But each individual, who is available for this trip should be clear about the importance of this geometric light field. Your task will be to install a very stable and strong energy field in Central Europe, which creates a compensation area between East and West.

The eastern area will be - starting with the Indian, Chinese and Japanese space along with the islands, which were born out of volcanic eruptions eons ago before time – strongly affected in the coming period with mother earth that is moving in her last birthing process.

On this side of the planet we can see a strong exit site of the new awareness energies that is born out of the earth.

For this reason, a lot of places were selected: Machu Picchu in Peru, Haleakala Hawaii, Uluru Australia, Mount Shasta California, the pyramids of Mexico and Bali. All these regions have a strong female energy, which now begins to discharge out of the bowels of the earth. These points hold some balance and stability for the planet.

The reason for your travel is to create a stable network on that side of the hemisphere, in order to moderate the discharges that take place from the inner heart of Mother Earth.

This information is of utmost importance!

By the fusion of Table Mountain and Corcovado in Brazil, which is directly linked to the Orkney Islands and thus to the north and south axis in the inside of the planet are, a defusing of energy will again take place.

For as long as those dark magic polarized information centers spread their dynamic energy on the earth, it will also be fuelled in the inside of the planet.

These two energy centers hold a male energy that runs opposite to the birth process of Lady Gaia.

This means that Lady Gaia in her labour activities is so heated which makes her discharge heavier than she should.

We give you this information today so that you internalize this information and will give it forward to the collective.

It is important that humanity understands that they - and we talk about each of your species - needs to learn to bring themselves in a balanced and peaceful energy.

As long as there are military aggression potentials that heat up each other, the energy of the dark magic fields between the Corcovado and Table Mountain is being fuelled. This means that these two "entities" are fed from the dynamic, aggressive energy of the human race.

At this point, we see that many people awake on this planet. What is happening in Japan, is an awakening effect. Many who remain at this time in a certain lethargy will be shaken up until they realize that they have to take responsibility for the planet. And in the form that they do not rely on the affairs of their governments, but that they take specific and direct influence on what is implied by these governments. This means that the person is aware of its importance more and more and that he is the bearer of the whole consciousness.

This is where your job in the near future starts. We have told you for a long time that you will stand in the forefront of this new development of consciousness. And now is the time to start doing so.

So we thank you, we bless you. We will provide further information in the near future.
